

PCP: Psychodrama Coach
Practitioner 2025

What is Psychodrama?

One can describe Psychodrama as a kind of laboratory for the exploration of psychosocial problems, but instead of physical equipment, the devices of role-play and one's own behavior are vehicles for experiments.

Neuroscience is validating what Psychodramatists have intuitively understood – that action methods, psychodrama, role play, and experiential exercises reach deep into the weave of the brain and the body to transform consciousness.

The multi-sensory aspects of the method are friendly to the brain, and create safe experiences for your clients which alter neurobiology and make lasting changes in their lives.

Psychodrama with its dictum “show us don't tell us” allows, as Zerka Moreno describes, for the inner world to “be first concretized and then reflected upon after it can be experienced on stage.”

These exceptional interventions will enable you to help your clients make unconscious preferences conscious.

Who is it for?

This is for:

Coaches, Trainers, Facilitators, People Enablers,
Leadership Development professionals, Business leaders,
And those on a journey of self-awareness/discovery.

Psychodrama provides insights into the psyche leading to personal and spiritual growth;
as well as applications in training, facilitation and coaching.

Psychodrama is a postgraduate study suitable for degree holders in Medicine,
Psychology, MBA, and similar fields. Our 90 long term participants have come from India,
Germany, Finland, Kuwait, Qatar, Iran, Dubai, Myanmar, Abu Dhabi and China.

Scope of learning

Psychodrama tools, techniques and concepts you will learn:

Sociometry

How can you use it to warm up the group? And also 'scan' the group demographic and emotional profile.

Social Atom

A sociometric pencil and paper exercise which involves making a diagram of significant relationships in a person's life.

Role-play Techniques

Role Reversal, Role Interview, Doubling, Mirroring.

Role Theory

Moreno looked at development in terms of roles a person plays at a moment in time; and how interventions can change/expand roles for their benefit.

The process of repairing some roles, adding new ones and allowing others to move from the foreground to the background is part of the healing process in role-play.

Empty Chair

When the client is able to talk TO the other (boss, colleague, etc.) in the empty chair, instead of talking ABOUT her problems, it enables and entering and rooting in the here-and-now moment.

It also allows for the client to role reverse with the other's perspective by changing chairs if appropriate.

Sculpture

The client is invited to express an emotion or 'stuckness' as a kind of "sculpture" with a sound; and then to change it into a desired state. This action movement brings an experience of change.

Magic Shop

and other creative work to regain power.

Course Structure

The program is offered in 2 parts.

Part 1

What some of our PCP graduates are saying

Two things that keep me sane - Exercising daily, at 6 am. Psychodrama coaching practice with Vedadrama .

I never pursued coaching in the past because I felt the approach was too prescriptive: checklists, smart questions, focus on the outcome no matter what.

With psychodrama, it is different. It does not even feel like a coaching session - we roleplay, use objects, wear masks, and use many creative methods. Very often, classes with Rashmi are the highlights of my week. I have never been so in touch with myself before, recognizing the triggers and adjusting my reaction to various situations.

This course has truly supported me, giving me more tools to choose as a coach. I've become braver and more spontaneous working my clients. Rashmi and her co Trainer Vipul created a safe space, allowing us to experiment, practice, make mistakes, share, learn and grow.

Rashmi's management of the program and people has allowed me to really look inside myself, challenge and just be honest with myself. Her questions are curious and the angles she approaches from are so gentle, yet very effective.

My experience in the group has really opened my eyes to the endless possibilities to the benefits and uses of psychodrama. I highly recommend this program to every coach who wants to improve.

More about Vedadrama

Psychodrama in India

Originally developed by Dr. Jacob L. Moreno (since 1921), and later expanded by Prof. Dr. Hans-Werner Gessmann (Founder of PIB Germany, established in 1973) it is one of the Humanistic Therapy methods (amongst Gestalt Therapy - Fritz Perls; client centered approach - Carl Rogers ; Logo Therapy - Viktor E. Frankl; and Transactional Analysis TA - Eric Berne) practiced widely in Europe and US and brought to India by the new owner of PIB, Prof. Dr. Jochen Becker-Ebel in 2012.

Vedadrama Founder

Jochen Becker-Ebel, a former priest, PhD in Philosophy and Theology, is the founder of Vedadrama. He is owner and CEO of the German MediAcion Palliative Care training institute and of PIB-Zentrum. Becker-Ebel found his second home in Tiruvannamalai India in 1985. After falling in love with India, he comes back every year for a few months. Since 1990 he trained 3000 German and Indian Medical Doctors in Palliative Care, now as Adjunct Professor. In 2008 Dr. Grete Leutz and others requested him to give formal psychodrama training accredited by the Hamburg Psychotherapy Council and the DFP.

Vedadrama Trainers

Becker-Ebel expanded 2012 to India and teaches now with his Indian Trainer-Partners Rashmi Datt PAT, Madhu Shukla PAT and Haseena Abdullah PAT at Bangalore, Mangalore, Coimbatore, Mumbai and New Delhi. He is joined by other international and board accredited experts like Dr. Steven Durost, Dr. Karen Drucker TEP, Klaus E. Harter, and Savita Dhawan TEP. Savita Dhawan, born from Mumbai, started to give psychodrama training in India back in 1996.
