HUMANISTIC PSYCHODRAMA

Originally developed by Dr. Jacob L. Moreno (since 1921), and later expanded by Prof. Dr. Hans-Werner Gessmann (Founder of PIB Germany, established in 1973) it is one of the Humanistic Therapy methods (amongst Gestalt Therapy - Fritz Perls; client centered approach - Carl Rogers ; Logo Therapy - Viktor E. Frankl; and Transactional Analysis TA - Eric Berne) practiced widely in Europe and US and brought to India by the new owner of PIB, Prof. Dr. Jochen Becker-Ebel in 2012.

FOUNDER AND TRAINERS

Jochen Becker-Ebel, a former priest, PhD in Philosophy and Theology, is the founder of Vedadrama. He is owner and CEO of the German Memomed Medical Education & Training institute and of PIB-Zentrum. Becker-Ebel found his second home in Tiruvannamalai India in 1985. After falling in love with India, he comes back every year for a few months. Since 1990 he trained 3000 German and Indian Medical Doctors in Palliative Care, now as Adjunct Professor. In 2008 Dr. Grete Leutz and others requested him to give formal psychodrama training accredited by the Hamburg Medical Council and the DFP. Becker-Ebel expanded 2012 to India and teaches now with his Indian Trainer-Partners Rashmi Datt PAT, Madhu Shukla PAT and Haseena Abdullah PAT at Bangalore, Mangalore, Coimbatore, Mumbai and New Delhi. He is joined by other international and board accredited experts like Dr. Steven Durost, Dr. Karen Drucker TEP, Klaus E. Harter, and Savita Dhawan TEP. Savita Dhawan, born from Mumbai, started to give psychodrama training in India back in 1996:

PARTICIPANTS

Psychodrama as a method provides both: insights into the psyche leading to personal and spiritual growth; as well as applications in training, facilitation and coaching. Psychodrama is a postgraduate study suitable for degree holders in Medicine, Psychology, MBA, and similar fields. Most of the participants are either Coaches/Trainers or Counsellors/ Therapists. Leadership skills are developed and therefore Company owners (future) leaders and HRD are attending. As psychodrama is apt for training and education we have Professors and lecturers attending the courses. The 90 long term participants come from India, Germany, Finland, Quwait, Qatar, Iran, Dubai, Abu Dhabi and China.

PHASES OF PSYCHODRAMA

First Step: “warming up”

Second Step: “action”

Third Step: “reintegration”

STRUCTURE

Details you will find on http://www.VedaDrama.com. The typical learning group of 10 to18 persons will have a continuous experience of learning for at least one year with 16 days (7 to 8 virtual events). Annual certificates are given after the first and second year. Pls find details on the website. After 16 days of training (160 hours, 4 times 4 days or 8 virtual events) the Psychodrama Leadership Practitioner certificate, called PLP can be obtained. After 32 training days (16 virtual events) PLEP is reached. The Psychodrama Director certified Practitioner (CP) is obtained after exam and 880 training hours spread over 4 years. The successful learned can call themselves according to the profession of origin: Coach / Psychodrama Director CP; Counsellor (or) therapeutic Practitioner / Psychodrama Director CP as well as Educator (or) Trainer / Psychodrama Director CP.

ACCREDITATION

The Executive Education of Vedadrama is an unique offer in itself. It does not match to a single focused profession or path of accreditation. The Education is accredited by the PIB, Germany, and thus by the respective Medical council and the German authorities. In India Vedadrama Education is part of the advanced learning program of the Medical faculty of the Yenepoya deemed to be an University at Mangalore since 2018. Vedadrama is organizational member of ASGPP, IAGP and ISPS.
