

Policy on Illness

In case a participant has to halt a program due to a health issue that prevents him/her from continuing, the participant can resume the program in future cohorts without any additional fee.

The concerned participant must provide satisfactory medical evidence to cdo@vedadrama.com, to support the request to halt participation in any course.

In exceptional circumstances related to health, a participant may be allowed to suspend participation in / withdraw from a program, with specific approval of the Chief Executive Officer, Vedadrama.

All decisions regarding change of a participant's status on account of health issues are subject to the approval of the Chief Executive Officer, Vedadrama.
